Mr. Sean M. Cummings
President

Avon, CT 06001

Dear Mr. Cummings,

It is a great pleasure to send greetings to all those attending “The Peace in the World” traveling exhibition from Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan, organized by the Fermata Arts Foundation.

I became acquainted with the multiples activities of the Fermata Arts Foundation, an institute that carries out a greatly appreciated work in the promotion of Kyrgyz culture amongst the younger generations. The promotion of Kyrgyz is a priority for our mission in the United States and it is important to know that we can count on the contribution and the enthusiasm of organizations such as this one over which you preside.

Likewise, worthy of praise is the ability of the Fermata Arts Foundation to dialogue and collaborate with the diverse components of which the Kyrgyz presence in the US is composed beginning with the Embassy of Kyrgyz Republic.

I would particularly like to express my appreciation for the dynamism and organizational skills demonstrated by the Executive Director Tatyana Ishutkina to whom I ask you to extend my greetings.

It is my pleasure on this occasion to extend our most cordial greetings and wishes for a happy holiday to you and the board of directors of the Fermata Arts Foundation, to the libraries staff that host these exhibitions and their patrons.

Please accept my best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

Ambassador
